Areas of Expertise

- Executive and Leadership coaching
- Tech industry background
- Sales, Marketing, & Partnerships
- 121 and team coaching
- DiSC Personality profiling

Kerry has a sales, marketing, consultancy and leadership background, specializing in the IT/tech industry and has experience in professional services, arts and media, finance, travel, hospitality and leisure sectors. She is a fully certified Co-active Coach, PCC accredited by the ICF, ORSC trained and a DiSC facilitator.

Coaching was a natural choice for Kerry, as someone who has always been naturally engaging and passionate about people. Her strengths have always been encouraging others, communication and relationship building. She cares deeply about empowering people and seeing them flourish.

Her clients talk about her energy, commenting that she was 'born for this work' and how easy she makes it for people to engage and transform, bringing everyone along with her. Whatever the situation, she is able to create a safe, creative, transparent space to enable people to be courageous, open up, reach new awareness and take meaningful action.

Her leadership superpower is a bright and positive presence combined with an honest, open straightforward, down to earth attitude.

The practical stuff

Kerry works one to one, with groups or teams, either in person or virtually.
